

Ideally, the successful candidate should have all if not the majority, of the following Experience and Qualifications:

- Minimum of 5 years in a financial role - Preferably financial analysis, project finance, financial transactions and execution, or similar, with a primary focus on sustainable finance highly preferable.
- Comprehensive understanding of financial markets, financial structuring, and investment instruments as they apply to sustainability projects.
- Demonstrated ability to think strategically, solve complex problems, and drive results in a fast-paced, transactional environment.
- Prior experience working with cities and/or public sector institutions engaging and delivering on sustainable project development.
- Proven experience of engagement with private sector financing institutions.
- Specific sectoral project experience in urban sustainable infrastructure e.g. renewable energy, energy efficiency, sustainable transportation, district heating and cooling, etc.

Skills Required

The successful candidate should be in possession of all the following skills:

- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to build relationships and collaborate effectively with diverse internal and external stakeholders.
- Financial transactional and execution skills.
- Knowledge of local and national financial ecosystems, frameworks and sustainability funding initiatives.
- Ability to advocate for [Hiring Partner], representing and reflecting the firm's culture, principles and values.
- Fluency in English (C2) and local/regional language essential

AWAITING APPROVAL BY THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION